Q & A with Denis and Tobi

1. How big was the crew and who took over which roles?

- The crew consisted of 32 people.
- Idea, storyboard, shooting schedule, acting and directing were done together.
- Editing and post production were also done by both of them.

2. Who is the DoP Jonathan Market?

Jonathan answers:

- Jonathan met Tobi and Denis at a film festival.
- He liked the idea of a film about not knowing which film to make.
- Both directors were very enthusiastic during the whole shooting and the atmosphere on set was great.
- The biggest challenge for him was working with the Steadycam.
- He learned a lot and had a lot of fun.

3. What were the inspirations for this film and what kind of film would you like to make in the future?

- Both directors came to filmmaking through courses at school.
- This film was also made in this context.
- They didn't know what they wanted to make a film about and then made this into a film theme.
- They don't have any concrete ideas for film projects in the future yet. They just want to get better and better.

4. What was planned and what was improvised?

- Everything was planned in advance.
- For the shooting in the cinema, for example, they had only 2 hours of shooting time. There was no time for improvisation.

5. What are your plans for the future?

- Denis plans to study industrial engineering and management after graduating from high school in September.
- Tobi then wants to study economics.
- Both have vowed to continue making films together after graduation — as a hobby.
- But if someone from the Hollywood or Bavaria Film studios is watching this and has a job offer for them, they would quit everything else and be there! ☺
