

1. How did you work together?
 - All the children helped to develop the story, characters and texts. They crafted, filmed, and set it into music.
 - The teachers only provided the framework for the project.
 - The final cut was done by the media workshop.

2. Do you think the world functions as described in the film?
 - The children answered yes, the world could be like that.

3. Who suggested singing "Pocahontas"?
 - The children had the idea.

4. What was the trigger for the project?
 - They do media projects at the daycare since 2011. The cartoons resulted from that.

5. What did this project arise from?
 - A media education project.

6. Were there interesting background stories?
 - Yes. Almost every child had dealt with this topic at home.

7. What kind of developments did you go through during this project?
 - No answer: the children were too young.

8. How did the film change you? How do you look toward to the next project?
 - No answer: the children were too young.
